

Foyer Global Health and Generali Employee Benefits (GEB) announce strategic IPMI and benefits partnership

- Foyer Global Health, the international health insurer and service provider for globally mobile people of Foyer Group, and Generali Employee Benefits Network (GEB) – both operating in Luxembourg, have signed on April 13th, 2023, a strategic partnership.

This partnership agreement enables GEB to offer to its customers new options to choose and access high-end, comprehensive health coverage - available worldwide. They can benefit from Foyer Global Health's expertise and strong knowledge of the IPMI market, which is reflected in a wide range of health solutions for globally mobile employees with unique advantages.

Foyer Global Health is a new add-on to GEB's worldwide employee benefits network and can offer its services and solutions to a pool of renowned international clients and intermediaries.

The partnership aligns with Foyer Global Health's ambition to establish selected long-term partnerships and have customer-centric offerings going beyond health insurance.

Jens Hohnwald - Chief Sales Officer of Foyer Global Health - stated on the occasion: "Adding GEB as a strategic partner is in alignment with our growth and partnership strategy. We look forward to providing high-end IPMI solutions to GEB's international group clients. It also gives us the opportunity to extend our range of services with employee benefits solutions, while expanding our reach and reinforcing our position as a leading player in the global health market.

Thierry Mestach - Chief Network & Partnerships Officer at GEB - "With Luxembourg based Foyer Global Health we don't only have a neighbour, but another arrow on GEB's bow to offer to international corporate customers and their intermediaries the best options to provide IPMI solutions. With Foyer Global Health and our other IPMI partners we should be able to tackle any request and provide the best possible health solutions and peace of mind to our customers, their employees and families that operate and live far from their familiar homebase."
